RHODE ISLAND SCHOOL OF DESIGN

Visiting Designer Lecture Series

MARCH > MAY 2018

Talks

Prem Krishnamurthy

May 3, 6:30pm, CIT 103

Working between design, curating, editing, and teaching Prem lives in New York and Berlin. He is Founding Principal of design studio Wkshps, which crafts identities; his previous firm, Project Projects, was the recipient of the Cooper Hewitt's 2015 National Design Award for Communication Design, the USA's highest recognition in the field. From 2012–2017, Prem established and directed the multidisciplinary exhibition space P! in New York City's Chinatown. His experimental, interactive monograph/memoir/manifesto, P!DF, was published by O-R-G in September 2017.

http://o-r-g.com/apps/p-df

Visiting Designer Lecture: Paul Sahre

April 5, 6:30pm, CIT 103

Paul Sahre is a graphic designer who has operated his own independent practice since 1997. He is a frequent visual contributor to The New York Times, authored books, redesigned two of Canada's largest magazines, built and destroyed a life-sized monster truck hearse for the band They Might Be Giants and appeared in a 90's Winona Rider film. Paul received his BFA and MFA from Kent State University and has taught graphic design at the School of Visual Arts for the past 13 years.

http://paulsahre.com/